

A Mindful Finale: Spirituality and Ritual at End-Of-Life

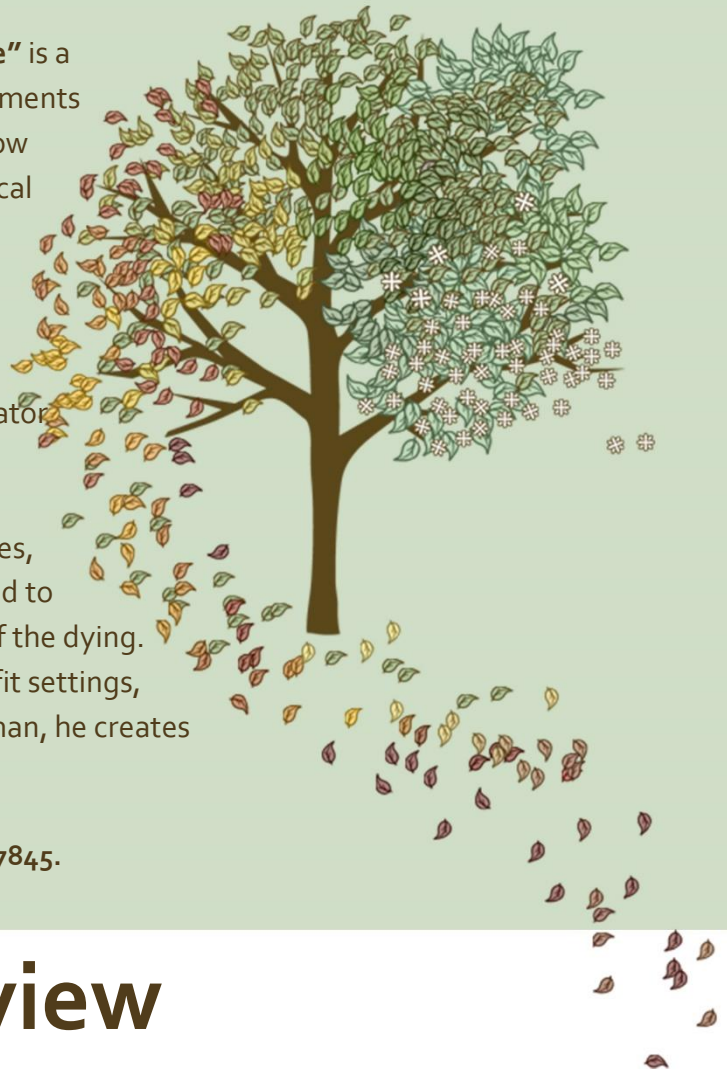

"A Mindful Finale: Spirituality and Ritual at End-of-Life" is a hands-on, full-day workshop that will help you foster moments of gratitude and joy during a challenging phase of life. How can spirituality help? You will fill your toolbox with practical rituals to help navigate complicated paths. Caregivers, family members, community volunteers and healthcare professionals are all welcome.

Guest Presenters: Darrin Parkin, Spiritual Care Coordinator
Rosedale Hospice & Sage Centre of Hospice Calgary

Blair Collins, B.A., B.Th., RSW

Darrin has provided spiritual care for 25 years on campuses, in parish ministry, in hospice, and in prisons. All he needed to know about life he learned in prison and at the bedside of the dying. Blair has worked for over 30 years in a variety of non-profit settings, including dealing with grief and loss. As a Hawaiian Shaman, he creates rituals appropriate to time and context of celebrations.
